

Cheyenne Grizzlies Fathers Day Event

Fathers Day and Kids Day (June 21st 2009)

This is our first annual Father/Kids day with the Grizzlies. Activities include baseball instruction for you and your old man. Finally after hearing him coach to you all season it's his turn behind the plate. Fathers and kids will get instructions from Grizzlies players and coaches. Both Dad and Kid(s) will get the opportunity to hit off of a Grizzlies Pitcher in BP and you will get the opportunity to hit off of the same pitcher.

Dad's and kids will go through a batting practice layout with the Grizzlies. Learn about the players, clubs and organization. Fathers Day participants will also get to throw in the New Grizzlies Radar booth. Win prizes and just have a great time celebrating Fathers Day.

You don't have to be a Dad or even a baseball player to join in the fun. Grandfathers, Mom's, Little League Coaches, Friends are all welcome to this fun field event. Wives take your husbands to the event, kids take your parent(s), make this fathers day one to remember.

Fun will begin at 12:00 noon with a Picnic style lunch at Pioneer Park, than we get to the Batting Practice and Radar booth fun. When its all done come back at 7:00 and watch the Grizzlies play the Laramie Colts at 7:00. Participants will get in as VIP guests of the Grizzlies. Very limited. Only one player to each participant group.
